SHALOM THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

About the institution

Shalom Theological Seminary (STS) is an undertaking of the Kuki Baptist Convention with a vision to train committed Christians who are called to serve in God's vineyard by providing degree and other programs that are academically oriented and practical in purpose thereby facilitating a meaningful Christian witness in a fast changing world. The institution was established in 2010 at KBC office, Imphal and has already commissioned over 50 graduates serving in different churches as Pastor, deacons and evangelists.

Administration structure

Owned and managed by KBC through the Theological Board.

Objectives

To help students develop a critical and reflective understanding of Christian faith and discern its implications for the church, society and individuals.

To equip students with the skills and knowledge required for service in the church and society.

To encourage and challenge Christians for propagation of the gospel.

To train lay leaders of the church through workshops, camps, seminars etc.

To encourage people to establish justice based relationship with God and with each other.

To serve as a signpost that will guide the church in theological, doctrinal and contemporary issues.
